DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 02/05/2007 has been entered.
2. Applicants' amendment dated 02/05/2007 has been received and entered. By the amendment, claims 1, 3-6, 13-14 and 16-20 are now pending in the application.
3. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejections as follow.

Drawings

4. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the brightness enhancing film disposing between the V-shaped grooves light guide plate and the liquid crystal panel must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 3, 6, 13-14, 17-18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakamaru et al., JP 2001-281654.

The above claims are anticipated by Nakamaru et al. figures 1 and 8 which disclose a liquid crystal display element comprising:

- . a backlight module (1)
- . a light guide plate (101) with a plurality of V-shaped grooves (see figure 5b) for promoting random diffraction of light
- . a reflector (106)

Art Unit: 2871

- . a quarter wave plate (109)
- . a reflective polarizing plate (108)
- . a liquid crystal display panel (107)

In response to Applicant's argument that Nakamaru et al. fails to disclose a light guide plate for promoting random diffraction of light, according to Nakamaru et al. figure 3, it should be noted that the term of "diffraction of light" denotes for a modification of light promoting random diffraction of light, in which light appear to be deflected (e.g., turn a side) rather than a polarization property of light (as illustrated in Nakamaru et al. figure 3). In other words, light emitting from Nakamaru et al. light guide plate would be randomly diffracting as well.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 4-5, 16, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakamaru et al., JP 2001-281654, in view of Applicant's admitted prior art (APA), figure 5.

Regarding the above claims, Nakamaru et al. disclose the claimed invention as described above except for the a diffuser and a brightness enhancing film. It would have been obvious to one skilled the art at the time of the invention was made to employ the Nakamaru et al. display including a diffuser and a brightness enhancing film, since it is a common practice in the art as evidence from the APA's figure 5 (diffuser 163 and brightness enhancing film 164) in order to improve light to a display device from backlight.
